Gold Surges to Record Highs Amid Rising Tariff War Fears
On Monday, China cautioned other countries against entering broader economic agreements with the US that might come at Beijing's expense. US President Donald Trump is pursuing a negotiation strategy as he seeks tariff reductions or exemptions from various countries. Due to trade tensions, the US dollar slipped towards a three-year low see more...

Japanese Yen seems poised to appreciate further against
The Japanese Yen (JPY) retains its bullish bias against a broadly weaker US Dollar (USD) heading into the European session and trades near a multi-month high touched earlier this Monday. Worries that an all-out trade war would trigger a global recession continue to weigh on investors' sentiment see more...

US Dollar selloff resumes after Good Friday
The US Dollar (USD) comes under renewed selling pressure after ending the previous week on a quiet note. Growing concerns over an economic downturn in the US and questions about the Federal Reserve's (Fed) independency weigh on the currency. Many international markets, including France, Germany and the UK, will remain shut in observance of see more...
